Do you know how to improve your child's understanding of reading?

Are you aware of the types of reading support offered in school?

Why Is Reading Important?

Creating a love of reading in children is potentially one of the most powerful ways of improving academic standards in school.

There can be few better ways to improve pupils chances in school, or beyond in the wider world than to enable them to become truly independent readers.

Reading requires two skills

Phonics and Word Recognition

The ability to recognise words presented in and out of context.

The ability to blend letter sounds (phonemes) together to read words.

Understanding

The ability to understand the meaning of the words and sentences in a text.

The ability to understand the ideas, information and themes in a text.

If a child understands what they hear, they will understand the same information when they read.

Avoid closed Questions!

- Do you like this book?
 - Do you like this character?
 - It's a good story isn't it?
 - Do you like reading?
 - Are you good at reading?
 - Do you like this kind of story?
- Change these questions so that the answers cannot be yes or no.
- What do you like about this book?
 - What do you think of this character?
 - Why do you think this is a good story?
 - What's great about reading?
 - Why are you a good reader?
 - What is it about these stories that you like so much?

Talking about books

It is not a test!

Do you like this book; why?

Who is your favourite character?

Tell me about a character in the book.

Which words tell you what the character is like?

How would you feel?

What do you think will happen next?

What would you do?

What have you learned about in your book?

What can you tell me about...?

Understanding (Comprehension)

- Being able to read does not mean you understand what you read.
- Your child might sound like a good reader but may not necessarily understand what the text means.
- The best way to develop understanding is to talk about texts.

Understanding (Comprehension)

- Finding information on the page.
- Being able to find information that is not on the page. Looking for clues
- Thinking about situations and predicting what might happen.
- Putting yourself in a character's shoes and understanding what is going on from their viewpoint.
- Book talk to make your child think.

Reading at Home – Enjoy!

- Understand it is not a test and it is not a race.
- Create a quiet and comfortable reading environment.
- Make reading visible; have books available in your home for different purposes.

(Cook books, newspapers, internet pages, novels and instruction manuals, calendars and diaries)

- Boys need to see that reading is something men do.
- Share books every day. Plan reading into your daily routine.
- Talk about books don't just read them.
- Sit and listen - don't do chores around the reader!

Hearing your child read

- Choose a quiet time and give your child your full attention;
- Give support if required using the strategies explained earlier;
- Explain the meaning of new words;
- Talk about the text using open questions.

Reading to your children

- Introduce your children to different types of books; classic fiction, chapter books, short stories, joke books, poetry, non-fiction.
- Read them the book that was your favourite when you were a child.
- Read slowly, with expression. Try to use different and funny voices for characters.
- Follow the words and read the story using the pictures.
- Talk about what is happening and what might happen next. Leave the story on a cliffhanger!
