Further information for candidates:

Full-time maternity leave cover early years class teacher post: From 26th January 2018, or earlier if required, to 24th July 2018 or the teachers return if earlier. We hope to fill our full-time temporary post with an excellent Key Stage 1 and/or Early Years practitioner. The post carries full responsibility for a class of 30 mixed ability children.

You will be supported in your induction to the school by the EYFS Lead and the Key Stage 1 team who will plan collaboratively with the successful candidate. You will have HLTA support within the class for the whole week and this same experienced HLTA will lead the class during your period of PPA time each week.

In your application, please complete the accompanying forms fully and then write a letter, which clearly states why you are applying to this school and give details of what you have to offer our staff team. Explain briefly your philosophy of how children learn best and your preferred methods of classroom management.

Please add any other information which is relevant to our published selection criteria.
